

3rd nine weeks

January 5, 2020

We would like to welcome our students joining us face-to-face for the 3rd 9 weeks. Please review our COVID plan, procedures and car rider expectations before January 5th.

All students joining us face-to-face for the first time on January 5th will need to wear a nametag. Please include the student's name, teacher name and grade.

Morning procedures:

Car rider students will need to look for their grade level sign as they arrive. Pre-K – 1st grade students enter through the car rider doors, 2nd & 4th grade students enter through the front lobby doors and 3rd grade students enter through the side door near the playground. Staff members will assist students.

Bus riders will enter through the cafeteria doors.

Parents are not able to walk their students to class.
