

Summer School Now: Credit Recovery

GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS

Graduating on time with your class is a goal all students and families share. However, students may find themselves needing to earn credits to recover from past failures or credits lost due to attendance problems. Whatever the reason, students often must take summer school and spend between $100 to $200 and 2 weeks of June here at school to earn those credits. We are very excited to offer students another option called, "Summer School Now" where credits can be earned now during the spring semester at a much lower price.

THE DETAILS YOU NEED TO KNOW
