PLEASE NOTE

Dickinson ISD principals will not accept telephone calls from parents changing students' after-school transportation plans. Because telephone callers cannot be identified by school personnel, only signed notes or personal visits from parents/guardians may authorize the school to change a student's after-school transportation. If there is a change please send a note to your child's teacher or be at the school no later than 3:00 pm.

Parent Orientation and Title One Presentation on 9/12—

Come up and meet with your child's teacher to get information on what's happening in their classrooms. Each grade level will give a repeat presentation at 3 different times. Please come to the one that best fits your schedule.

College Day

On Wednesday's we encourage students to wear their college spirit gear in order to promote college readiness.

Lobit House System

The last Friday of each month will be House Spirit Days. Our first one will be on September 27th. Please ask your student which house they are in and have them dress from head to toe in that color.
