

STANDARDS OF STUDENT CONDUCT

Performing groups are a source of great pride to Dickinson ISD. Due to their high level of visibility, members of these organizations must exhibit conduct and discipline above that expected of other students in the school district. The following standards have been approved by the Fine Arts Department and have been formulated as an aid to students, parents, and teachers in comprehending the behavior that is expected of all fine art students.

- I. When committed while at school, during any activity of the performing group, and/or during any school activity, the violations of school policy listed below will result in serious disciplinary action, including possible suspension from the performing group and reassignment to a non-performing group or another elective for the remainder of the school year. Suspension and reassignment will automatically include the loss of such privileges as attending trips, banquets, etc., and may be a part of any lesser disciplinary action. The appropriate disciplinary action will be selected in consultation with the school administrative staff and the fine art teachers involved. An officer who commits any of these violations may be permanently barred from holding any offices in any fine arts organizations.
 - A. Unexcused absence from a required performance or rehearsal.
 - B. Assigned DALC, Out of School Suspension, *Excessive School Detentions, or ISS
 - C. The following infractions:
 - 1. Smoking, possession of tobacco products or Vape products
 - 2. Possession of a weapon
 - 3. Fighting
 - 4. Gambling
 - 5. Forgery
 - 6. Obscene Language or Gestures
 - 7. Possession of Fireworks
 - 8. Hazing
 - 9. Cheating
 - 10. Insubordination
 - 11. Smoking, possession of tobacco
 - 12. Vandalism (including the misuse of fine arts equipment or instruments)
 - 13. Verbal abuse / altercation
 - 14. Terrorist Threat
 - 15. Possession/Distribution/use of alcohol or Drugs including paraphernalia

 - 17. Truancy
 - 18. Theft
 - 19. Inappropriate Cyber/Social Media Activity
 - D. Campus policies concerning exclusion from any field trip may also apply to activities and/or trips scheduled by any fine art group. Suspension from the fine arts group and/or reassignment to a non-performing group or another elective may occur on the first offense and the student will be scheduled into the new class in a timely manner.
- II. In the event of a long-term suspension and/or reassignment to a non-performing group, the student must make a written request for reinstatement to the fine arts teacher and schedule a conference with both the Principal / Assistant Principal and the teacher prior to the end of the school year. REINSTATEMENT WILL BE AT THE DISCRETION OF THE TEACHER AND THE ADMINISTRATOR. Reinstatement will include the return of student privileges except that of holding office in the fine arts organization.
