

MY WHY...

Is to do my best to be a positive person in my student's daily interactions and make special connections. Inspiring our youth is a blessing and my goal is to be an example that through education the possibilities are endless.

Lisa Davis