

MY WHY...

I believe in equality for ALL children. The desire for the students to be “seen” often impacts their success in life. Choosing to work in a DAEP setting is an opportunity to show all children that they are not being judged but instead guided toward meaningful opportunities.

- Lana Jordan